VOL. III. NO. 74.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

SUBURBAN AND BROOKLYN ODDS.

There is as yet no betting of any account on the Suburban and Brooklyn. O'Dell of Savannah, Ga., a reliable man, has opened a tab on the two races. For the Suburban Requit and Clifford at 10 to 1, Buck Massie, Handspring and Hastings at 12 to 1 and Ben Brush at 15 to 1 are the leaders.

For the Brooklyn, Requit 8 to 1, is favorite. Handspring and Hastings are quoted at 10 to 1. Belmar at 12 to 1 and Ben Brush at 15 to 1. There isn't the inclination there used to be for future betting.

Racing Stories of the Day.

Real horse news must be "scaace" in Memphis. In lieu thereof comes a tin-tin-abulating story of 1887 about C. H. Todd working for the American Derby by lantern light at the Memphis track under the intelligent eye of Dennis, alias "White Hat" McCarty, who is said to have won heavily on the confidence given him by the iridescent trial. Yet the facts of the turf are that "White Hat" was a mere figure about C. H. Todd. Albert Cooper trained and managed the Joe Hooker colt. He had no lamplight trial, won the Derby in a lucky sort of way and wasn't anything like a "good thing" to the effervescent McCarty or anyone else. The Todd story is told to illustrate another fable about Mr. Patterson's Burlesque having worked a mile in the same uncanny way last Monday in a little better than nothing.

One of Patterson's two year olds by Hindoo is also "tabbed" for a quarter in 22½ seconds and a half in 49 seconds and still another Hindoo colt as being better than his kinsman. If people who write of racing would study the horse they would find that he doesn't work well in the dark.

NEW BOOKS OF CHARTS.

Four new volumes of form are ready for delivery. No. 1 is in soft Morocco covers and includes the charts from June 2, 1896, with a double index from January 1, 1897, to March 18 inclusive—on linen paper. It is a noble volume and costs $15.

No. 2 includes all charts from August 24, 1896, to March 18, 1897, inclusive, is similarly bound and costs $10.

No. 3 is bound and indexed in the same high class way and covers racing by charts on both regular and outlaw tracks from January 1 to March 18, inclusive. Its price is $3.50.

No. 4 is in stout paper covers with a plain index and covers the racing term from January 1 to March 18, 1897, 300 pages of charts and index. It is for sale at $2.50. There are but a few volumes for sale. Applicants shall have them in the order of their calls.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

"It is rumored that in future California Jockey Club programmes will include no jumping races except the stakes that have already closed. The management is said to have arrived at this conclusion after Wednesday's hurdle handicap, which looked very bad from any point of view."—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman. The race referred to is that of March 17, which Flashlight won.

The future stakes of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club of San Francisco (Ingleside) will be run on the following dates: Ullman Stakes, Saturday, March 27; California Derby, Saturday, April 3; Corrigan Stakes, Monday, April 19;

Spreckels Cup, Saturday, April 24; the California Hurdle Stakes, Wednesday, April 28; Ingleside Stakes, four miles, Saturday, May 1.

The California papers quote Dan Honig for the opinion that H. Martin, the Californian lightweight jockey under contract to Dave Gideon, is the best boy he has ever seen as to riding ability.

Springbok died at the Megibben—Edgewater farm in Kentucky last Friday. He was 27 years old, a good racehorse in his youth and a more than average sire since he retired from the turf.

New Orleans selling platism is agitated to its depth nowadays. John Madden is the agitator. He recently got Al Kyris and Marie C via the claiming clause and lost Charlie Christy.

The fakirs who told the public that the Iron Hill Tampa was another Tampa or May W, should study Iron Hill racing and the career of an entirely different animal.

Tully Coulter's Woodland Belle will recover from the kick she received at the post in a recent San Francisco race, but will never be able to go to the post again.

There doesn't seem to be much of a chance for the New Jersey racing bill. It has been reported adversely by the committee to which it was referred.

The Burns & Waterhouse colt Kingstreet by King Thomas—Deception died in California a few days ago.

Jockey Gatewood has been signed to ride the Scoggin horses during the season of 1897.
